

October 19th

On this day in...

2010: Heavy thunderstorms dropped 0.62 inch in 15 minutes in Victorville. Localized flash flooding occurred. Lightning struck a home in Wildomar and Riverside Woodcrest, and a mobile home in Hesperia. A six-inch hole resulted in the Wildomar roof and a three-inch hole in Riverside. The mobile home caught on fire.

Thunderstorms with lightning struck Hesperia on this day in 2010.

1991: It was 111° in Palm Springs, the latest date in the season to record 110° or higher.

1972: A violent thunderstorm struck Redlands with two hours of heavy rain and hail. Officially at the Redlands gauge, 0.55 inch fell. Intersections in Redlands were flooded.